Independent Auditor's Report

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of CURE Childhood Cancer, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of CURE Childhood Cancer, Inc. as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

June 30, 2016 and 2015

NOTE A – NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

CURE Childhood Cancer, Inc. (CURE) is a nonprofit organization CURE is dedicated to conquering childhood cancer through funding targeted research and through support of patients and their families. CURE was incorporated on November 26, 1975 under the laws of the state of Georgia. CURE is located in Georgia; substantially serves Georgia; and, is substantially supported through grants and contributions. Program activities include the following:

Research – CURE is focused on supporting childhood cancer experts, locally and nationally, who are working daily to discover the ultimate solution. While most organizations are focused on treatment, facilities, education or a program related to what today’s knowledge and medicine can offer, CURE is focused on expanding the platform of research to uncover new treatments that speed healing, are less invasive and less damaging, and that can eradicate the cancer itself. CURE has close co-operative relationships with many international and national groups involved in childhood cancer including The National Institute of Health, The National Cancer Institute, and The Children’s Oncology Group.

Fellowships – Because the future for children with cancer rests on the doctors and researchers who are being trained today, CURE fully funds two pediatric oncology fellows and building towards endowing a third at the Emory University School of Medicine. CURE believes it is crucial to have new teams of skilled researchers prepared to carry on the search for the cure.

Education – CURE is committed to furthering education on issues surrounding childhood cancer. We publish The CURE Report three times each year and we publish a monthly electronic newsletter. We have a robust education program directed to survivorship and wellness of our families and directed to educating the public about childhood cancer, research and the needs of families.

Patient and Family Support – CURE supports children with cancer and their families as well as the frontline caregivers whose compassionate care and skill are instrumental to a child’s health and healing. Early Outreach assists families with a new diagnosis in facing their fear and anxiety by providing practical information, encouragement, and other items useful to families throughout their journey. Critical Needs Care is dedicated to addressing the most critical and urgent needs of childhood cancer patients and their families. Family Emergency Funds provide emergency financial assistance; Open Arms delivers meals to both the Egleston and Scottish Rite campuses of the AFLAC Cancer Center at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta and Children’s Memorial Hospital of Savannah (CMH); Bereavement Care provides essential bereavement support to families who have lost a child to cancer; and, Partners in Caring counseling program that provides professional counseling services to families at minimal to no cost. Caring for the Caregiver is aimed at addressing the emotional strain felt by the frontline caregivers of children with cancer and their families at the two campuses of CHOA and CMH.

NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Advertising	Advertising costs and media campaigns are expensed as paid which approximates when an advertisement first takes place; or when the program production and related broadcasting is completed. During the fiscal years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, CURE expensed advertising and media campaign costs approximating $149,000 and $140,000 respectively.
Accounts Receivable	Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off.
Cash and Cash Equivalents	CURE considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.
Contributions and Donations	In-kind support is recognized for professional services received if those services (a) create or enhance long-lived assets, or (b) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Donations of tangible assets are recognized at fair market value when received. The amounts reflected in the accompanying financial statements as in-kind support are offset by like amounts included in expenses or assets. Contributions are recorded at fair market value as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. When the donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and are reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.
Receivables from Estate	Receivables from estates are recognized as contribution revenue in the period CURE receives notification that the court has deemed the will of the donor's estate to be valid and all conditions have been substantially met and are stated at the amount which management estimates to collect.
Grants Payable	CURE records a liability for grants when they have been approved by the Board of Directors and communicated to the grantees. Grants which are conditional are recorded as liabilities when the conditions to the grants have been substantially met. CURE evaluates the facts and circumstances to determine if a discount related to grants payable is necessary.

NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

Functional Expense

Allocations

Costs of providing programs and services have been summarized on a functional basis on the Statement of Activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Income Taxes

CURE is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not classified as a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. CURE is also exempt from Georgia income taxes. Income which is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and Georgia corporate income taxes. For the years ended June 30 2016 and 2015, CURE did not have any net unrelated business income.

Management of CURE considers the likelihood of changes by taxing authorities in its filed income tax returns and recognizes a liability for or discloses potential significant changes that management believes are more likely than not to occur, including changes to its status as a not-for-profit entity. Management believes CURE met the requirements to maintain its tax-exempt status and has no income subject to unrelated business income tax; therefore no provision for income taxes has been provided in these financial statements. CURE's income tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities, and may change upon examination.

Investments

Investments are accounted for in accordance with authoritative guidance which states that investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair market values and all debt securities should be reported at fair market value with gains and losses included in the statement of activities.

Investments are made according to the Investment Policy Statements adopted by CURE's Board of Directors. These guidelines provide for investments in equities, fixed income, and other securities with performance measured against appropriate indices. Outside parties are contracted by CURE for the purpose of providing investment management and consulting.

Fair Value

Measurement

CURE measures fair value at the price that would be received upon sale of an asset, or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

CURE CHILDHOOD, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

Fair Value
-continued

Authoritative guidance establishes a hierarchy for ranking the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values, requiring that assets and liabilities carried at fair value be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Unadjusted quoted market prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2: Unadjusted quoted market prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, unadjusted quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Management has determined that the carrying values of cash, receivables, investments, other assets, accounts payable, accrued expenses, grants payable, refundable advances, and Family Funds Held in Trust approximate fair value.

Net Assets

CURE reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost except for donated items, which are recorded at estimated fair market value when donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 5 to 7 years. Expenditures of $1,000 or more for major renewals and betterments which increase the value or materially extend the life of the related assets are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred.

Unconditional Promises to Give

Promises to give are recognized as support when the donor makes a promise to give to CURE that is, in substance, unconditional. Promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year are recorded at their net realizable value. Promises to give that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of estimated future cash flows. The discounts on these amounts are computed using a risk-free interest rate applicable to the year in which the pledge is made.

Use of Estimates Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

Reclassifications Certain amounts in the 2015 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2016 classifications. These reclassifications have no material effect on total net assets.

Subsequent Events CURE evaluated subsequent events for potential required disclosures through – January 6, 2017 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE C – INVESTMENTS

The following table summarizes CURE’s investments at their fair value measurements, all of which are Level 1 investments, in accordance with authoritative guidance as of June 30:

Interpretation of Relevant Law

The Board of Directors has interpreted the State Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (SPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, CURE classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, and (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the organization in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by SPMIFA. In accordance with SPMIFA, the organization considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of the organization and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of the organization
7. The investment policies of the organization.

Funds with Deficiencies

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or SPMIFA requires the organization to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with GAAP, deficiencies of this nature are reported in unrestricted net assets. There were no such deficiencies as of June 30, 2016 or 2015.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters

CURE has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that strive to expand the purchasing power of the endowment fund (Fund) while providing for distributions based on its spending policy. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the organization must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Directors, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that approximate the stated spending objectives plus the consumer price index assuming a moderate level of investment risk. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount with the primary objective for the Fund being preservation and growth of principal.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, CURE relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends).

The Organization targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy

CURE has a policy of distributing annually 5 percent of the endowment fund's previous 12 month average balance. However, the Board of Directors have the right in any given year to spend any amount in excess or below this stated amount, as they deem appropriate. The Board has set a minimum balance for the fund at $1,000,000. The fund can be reduced below this threshold only with approval from both the Finance Committee and the Executive Committee.

NOTE E- INTANGIBLE ASSETS

At June 30, 2016 intangible assets included website development at $23,500 which was placed in service subsequent to the fiscal year; and fully amortized software totaling $1,014. At June 30, 2015 it included software at $1,014 with accumulated amortization of $817. Software amortization was determined based on the straight-line method over 36 months; and, website development will be amortized on a similar basis.

NOTE F – FAMILY FUNDS HELD IN TRUST

From time to time CURE enters into agreements to receive and administer funds on behalf of families impacted by pediatric cancer. Agreements have a three-year term and may be extended by mutual agreement; upon expiration or termination any unused funds are then considered a donation to CURE. As of June 30, 2016 there are no family funds maintained at CURE.
