Benefiting Catie's Fund of CURE Childhood Cancer

Catie's Gathering

Formerly known as "Sisters on a Journey", Catie's Gathering is a unique, inspiring event benefiting Catie's Fund of CURE Childhood Cancer. This special dinner features creative themed tables, a silent and live auction, a raffle, speakers, and entertainment, all while raising important funds to support life-saving pediatric cancer research. Last year, more than 2,300 people attended one of the four Catie's Gathering events held in communities in south Georgia.

About Catie's Fund

On her first birthday, Catie Wilkins was diagnosed with medulloblastoma, an aggressive brain tumor. With no warning, Catie and her family were plunged into a world of doctors, surgeries, chemotherapy, and medications. Through years of harsh treatments, her tumor continued to grow. Catie's tired immune system succumbed to a common virus shortly before her fifth birthday. Catie's family is committed to furthering research in her memory. They hope that in the future better treatments will be available so children can survive and thrive after a cancer diagnosis.

About CURE Childhood Cancer

Founded in 1975, CURE is dedicated to conquering childhood cancer through funding targeted research and through support of patients and their families. CURE dedicates more than $4.3 million annually to specific research aimed at curing cancers which affect children.
